Information on Funding Resources for Improving Child Abuse and Neglect and Child Welfare Programs and Practice

The following organizations are among many that provide information on funding resources to improve programs and practice in child abuse and neglect and child welfare. Inclusion on this list is for information purposes and does not constitute an endorsement by the Clearinghouse or the Children's Bureau.

Annie E. Casey Foundation (AECF)

701 St. Paul Street
Baltimore, MD, 21202
Phone: (410) 547-6600
Fax: (410) 547-6624
URL: <http://www.aecf.org>

The Annie E. Casey Foundation works to build better futures for disadvantaged children and their families. The primary mission of the AECF is to foster public policies, human service reforms, and community supports that meet the needs of today's vulnerable children and families.

Children's Bureau (CB)

330 C Street SW
Washington, DC, 20447
URL: <http://www.acf.hhs.gov/programs/cb/>

The Children's Bureau, the oldest Federal agency for children and families, is located within the Department of Health and Human Services' Administration for Children and Families, Administration on Children, Youth and Families. The Bureau is responsible for assisting States in the delivery of child welfare services designed to protect children and to strengthen families. The Bureau provides grants to States, Tribes, and communities to operate a range of child welfare services including child protective services, family preservation and support, foster care, adoption, and independent living.

David and Lucille Packard Foundation Children, Families and Communities Program

The Future of Children
The David and Lucille Packard Foundation
300 Second Street, Suite 200
Los Altos, CA, 94022
Phone: (650) 948-7658
Fax: (650) 941-2273
URL: <http://www.packard.org/>

One of the major program areas of the Foundation is the Children, Families, and Communities Program. The Program focuses on children's access to high-quality health care, the development of children and youth, the economic security of families, and the reduction of violence in homes. The "Future of Children" is a publication of this Program. The primary purpose of this journal is to promote effective policies and programs for children by providing policymakers and service providers with objective information based on the best available research.

Edna McConnell Clark Foundation (EMCF)

250 Park Avenue
Suite 900
New York, NY, 10177
Phone: (212) 551-9100
Fax: (212) 986-4558
Email: info@emcf.org
URL: <http://www.emcf.org>

The Edna McConnell Clark Foundation funds programs in four major areas: the poor, children, the elderly, and the developing world. The Program for Children's Community Partnerships addresses child abuse and neglect by raising neighborhood awareness of child safety issues, empowering neighborhood residents to become more involved with families at risk of abusing or neglecting children, strengthening local organizations and helping them form child safety networks, and fostering policy, practice, and organizational changes with public sector child protective services agencies. A major new initiative, the Program for Youth Development, focuses on helping young people from low-income families make successful transitions to independent adulthood.

Freddie Mac Foundation

8250 Jones Branch Drive
Mailstop A40
McLean, VA, 22102
Phone: (703) 918-8888
Fax: (703) 918-8895
Email: freddiemac_foundation@freddiemac.com
URL: <http://www.freddiemacfoundation.org>

The Freddie Mac Foundation provides funds for various nonprofit organizations that work on behalf of children, youth, and families. The Foundation focuses on children and prevention-oriented programs. Typically, grants are awarded to programs that build strong families, prevent child abuse and neglect, and recruit foster and adoptive parents. Among the Foundation's major programs are Healthy Families America and Wednesday's Child USA, a campaign to promote adoptions.

Office of Juvenile Justice and Delinquency Prevention (OJJDP)

810 7th St., NW
Washington, DC, 20531
Phone: (202) 307-5911
Fax: (202) 307-2093
Email: askjj@ncjrs.org
URL: <http://www.ojjdp.ncjrs.org/>

OJJDP's mission is to provide national leadership, coordination, and resources to prevent and respond to juvenile delinquency and victimization. OJJDP accomplishes this by supporting States and local communities in their efforts to develop and implement effective and coordinated prevention and intervention programs and to improve the juvenile justice system so that it maintains public safety, holds offenders accountable, and provides treatment and rehabilitation tailored to the needs of families and individuals.

Orphan Foundation of America (OFA)

Tall Oaks Village Center
12020-D North Shore Drive
Reston, VA, 20190-4977
Phone: (571) 203-0270
Fax: (571) 203-0273
Email: help@orphan.org
URL: <http://www.orphan.org>

The Orphan Foundation of America's mission is to provide opportunities for America's foster youth to continue their education, to increase awareness of the number and plight of older teens leaving the bureaucratic maze of foster care, to highlight the potential of America's foster youth and the importance of supporting their dreams, and to offer direct opportunities for citizens, business, and civic organizations to assist older foster youth.

Substance Abuse and Mental Health Services Administration (SAMHSA)
